(Dates and times listed below)

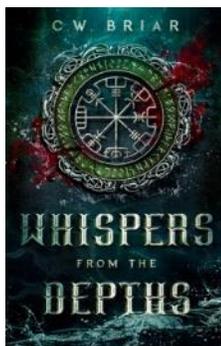

Shop for the holidays at Barnes & Noble in Vestal or online at BN.COM/bookfairs from December 6–10th and a percentage of your purchases will be donated to Literacy Volunteers of Broome-Tioga Counties! Donations will help Literacy Volunteers assist adult learners to improve their reading, writing, math, computer literacy, and speaking and comprehending the English language.

To help support Literacy Volunteers, all you need to do is present a Literacy Volunteers' voucher – mention us at the register – or enter our Bookfair ID #12613246 online.

Jason and the Draconauts, Paul Smith
Monday, December 6th From 6:00—9:00 pm

Paul Smith lives in upstate New York with his wife and two sons, where he works with emotionally disturbed and mentally ill children. He earned a master's degree in social sciences from Binghamton University in 1999. A lifelong love of science fiction, fantasy, and superhero stories influences Paul's writing. The Jason and the Draconauts series is now complete and Paul is hard at work on his next YA series.

Whispers from the Depths, C.W. Briar
Thursday, December 9th From 4:00—8:00 pm

Join dark fantasy and horror author C.W. Briar from 4:00-8:00 pm to check out his novel, Whispers from the Depths, as well as anthologies with his short stories. Whispers from the Depths is a fantasy thriller about a water mage fighting for freedom and survival while caught between her warrior captors a murderous spirit that's hunting them all. Briar will also be promoting his next book, Sticks and Stones, a collection of horror stories centered around the theme of childhood. He is a lifelong resident of the Southern Tier, and he can often be found at local events with his family and dogs. You can find out more about him on Facebook (@CW Briar) and Instagram (@cw_briar).
